

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1168

Introduced by Assembly Member Carter

February 27, 2009

An act to amend Section 127 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to professions and vocations.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1168, as introduced, Carter. Professions and vocations.

Existing law provides for the licensure and regulation of various professions and vocations by boards and bureaus within the Department of Consumer Affairs, and places the department under the control of the Director of Consumer Affairs. Existing law authorizes the director to request specified reports from these boards.

This bill would make nonsubstantive, technical changes to that provision.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 127 of the Business and Professions Code
- 2 is amended to read:
- 3 127. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, the
- 4 director may require ~~such~~ reports from any board, commission,
- 5 examining committee, or other similarly constituted agency within

- 1 the department as he or she deems reasonably necessary on any
- 2 phase of their operations.
